LEAHI HOME BENEFIT PROMISES TO BE MOST SUPERIOR AMATEUR EVENT

Rehearsals Foretell Production of Merit; Indications Point to Large Attendance

The prediction is made that the opera house will be packed to the doors tonight at the initial performance of "The Spirit of Hawaii," the sketch with a local setting, written by local author—or authors—and presented by local talent.

Leahi Home will receive the entire net receipts from the performance of tonight, tomorrow and Friday nights and that the net receipts will be large is the assurance of the management.

The following elaborate program has been prepared and from rehearsals it can be truthfully stated that it will be one of the most elaborate amateur performances ever undertaken in this city. There has been no dearth of talent willing to aid in the worthy cause.

The program:
Solo—Thomas F. Sedgwick (basso).
Violin selections by Miss Vera Dale Keene. Piano accompanist, Mrs. Bechtel.
Monologue—S. O. Thatcher, U. S. S. Alert.

"THE SPIRIT OF HAWAII"

Pele, goddess of fire..... May Edythe Taylor

Lehua..... Fenella Miles

Leslie Alden, playwright, W. H. Hutton

James, an English butler..... E. C. Vaughan

Kahuna, a Hawaiian sorcerer..... Dickson Nott

Attendants to Pele, the goddess of fire

MAGEE MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY OPENS IN 'GILHOOLEY'S TROUBLES'

Jack Magee and Francis Kerry, who will appear to good advantage in "Gilhooley's Troubles" at the Bijou Theater.

When the Jack Magee Musical Comedy Company opens its engagement tonight at the Bijou theater for an indefinite run, there will undoubtedly be little seen of fervid hugs with arms thrown around shoulders and necks. What is the answer? Leading woman, soubrette, character woman and all the chorus could not resist the lure of the Waikiki beach surf from almost the time they landed on the island until the sun went down. Result? A group of as nicely sunburned necks and shoulders as you could care to witness. According to you see peculiar shoulder straps on evening gowns tonight at the Bijou you will know they are hiding the white streaks where the Honolulu sun did not hit through the bathing suits. However, the "girls" are not at all flurried. They are enamored of the surf bathing and each and every one proclaims they will learn to ride a surf board before they leave Hawaii. Many of them began their practice yesterday and no end of fun was accorded to on-lookers. On one occasion Dorothy Raymond and Maxie Mitchell gained big applause when they rode a board double standing up for a fraction of a minute before they went tumbling into the breaker. Jack Magee was out also looking after his flock and gave an excellent imitation of a porpoise. Frances Kerry, Lillyan Mason and all the other feminine members of the troupe were also out and goaded the male members who were sitting on the beach hotel porch until finally the entire company was in the water. It was a day of rest and play for the company to recover their land legs and tonight they will open at the Bijou in the rollicking, frolicking comedy "Gilhooley's Troubles," which affords all manner of laughable complications and situations and allows of the interpolation of a dozen late mainland song hits as well as a number of specialties.

We Shot 'Em Between The Kitchen and the Woodshed

When The Boss Said Shoot That Meant Something!

Twenty-eight suits of the Adler Bros. & Co., makers of the Adler-Rochester clothes with such values as $25., $27.50 and $30, shot out of our store before 1 o'clock today. That's some shooting, let me tell you. Every shot was a ringer, for never in the clothing history of Honolulu has there been such slaughter in prices on high-grade clothing.

At 1 o'clock the army of 28 well-pleased and money-saving customers were seen beating it over the hills to their homes greatly satisfied with their bargains.

Private information (inside stuff) from our Aerial Corps and Stock Keeper says that we will not be able to hold out much longer—no, not at the price of $15.95 for an Adler-Rochester suit. This price has upset the calculations of the greatest clothing generals in the country.

According to the latest dope from the board of strategy of the Model Clothiers, we will be ready to make a hasty retreat (beat it back) to our new home under construction at 1139-1141 Fort St., much earlier than we expected, for no stock of high-grade clothing (such as we are almost giving away) can hold out in this terrible slaughter of prices. Now get this: Put some ammunition in your pocket and get an Adler-Rochester suit for $15.95 before they all cross over the river to the wise ones.
